

Bear's Paw

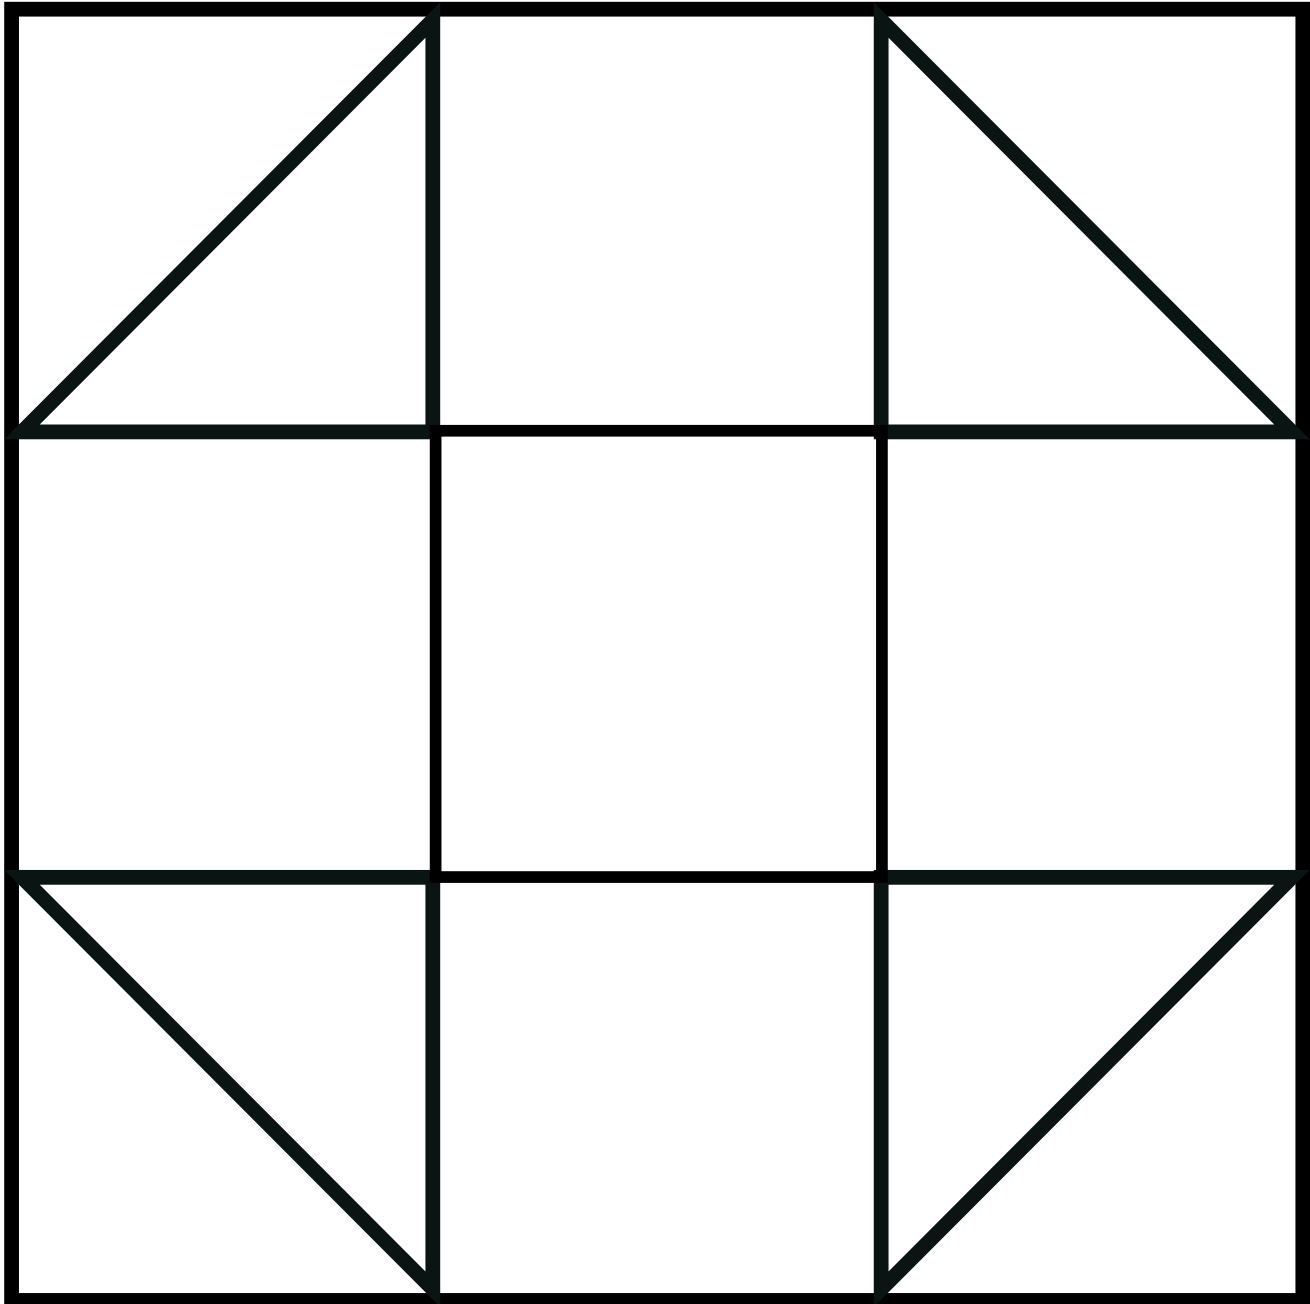

This symbol meant to follow a mountain trail or even an actual bear trail. Once out of sight, you would find water and food.

Flying Geese

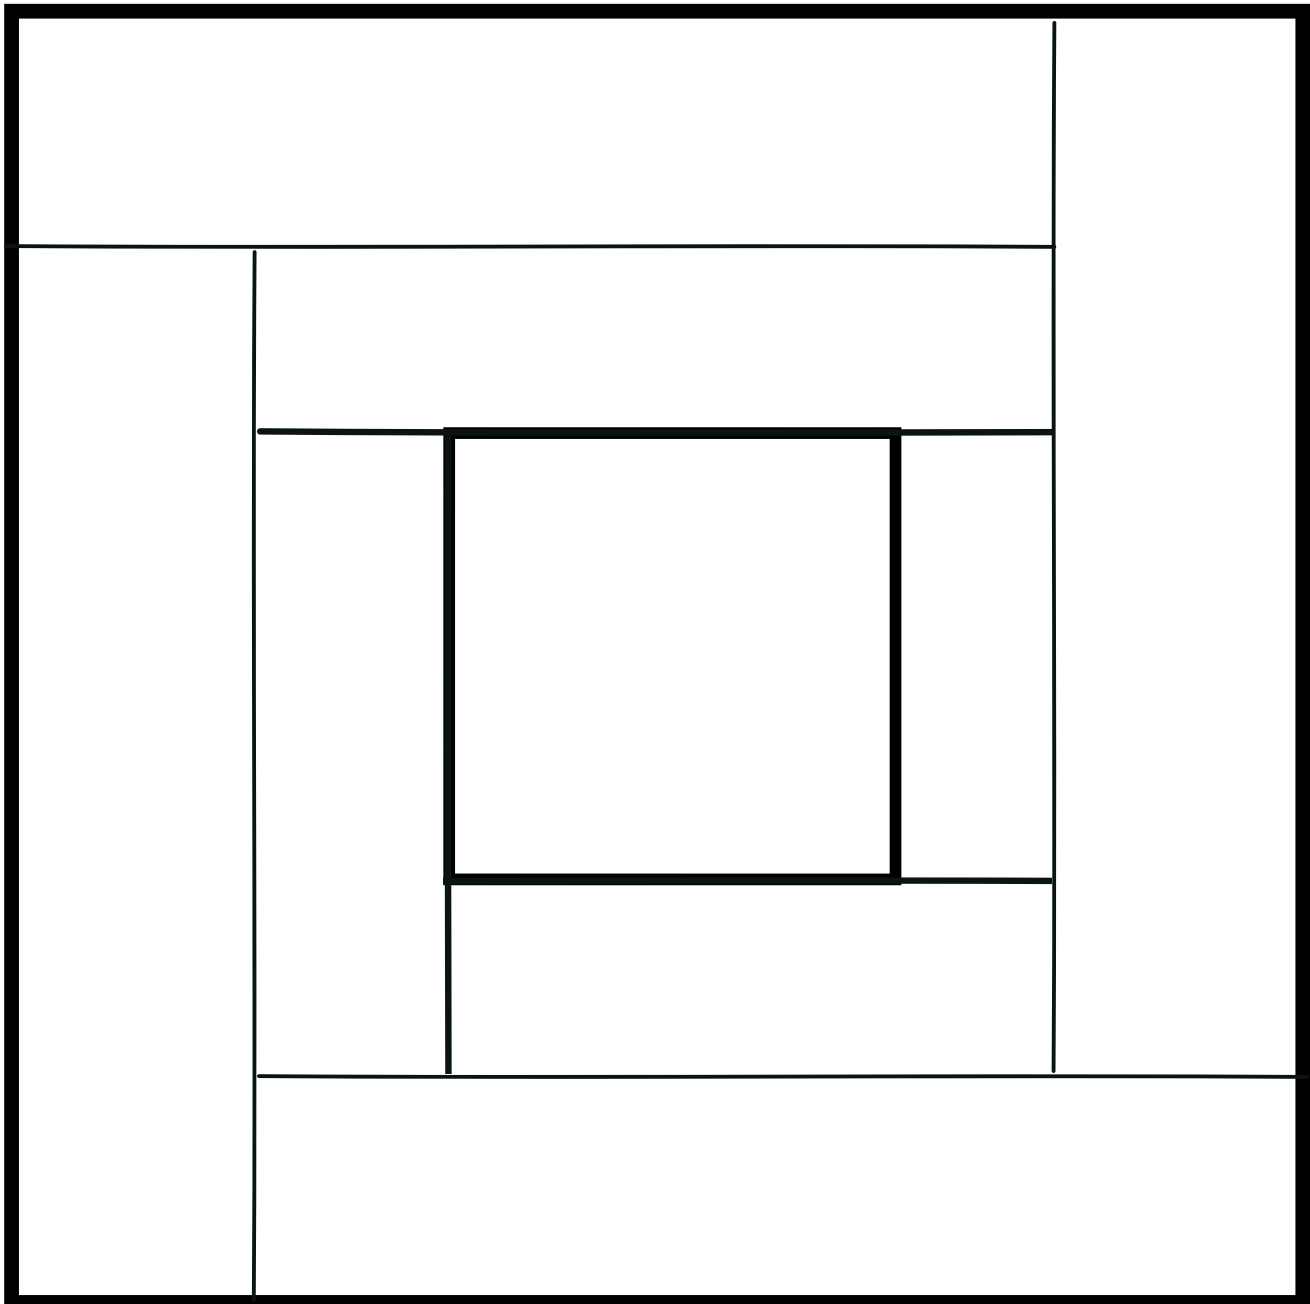

A signal to follow the direction of the flying geese as they migrated north in the spring. Geese could also be a good way to find water and food.

Quilt Codes

Shoofly

A symbol possibly identifying a person who can guide and help people escaping slavery along the Underground Railroad.

Log Cabin

This symbol could indicate a safe house or safe person along the Underground Railroad. It could also indicate that it was necessary to find shelter.